

THE KENYA ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGY REGISTRATION BOARD (KETRB)

TRAININGS SCHEDULED FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 2021

PROPOSED DATES	AREA OF TRAINING	AREA OF FOCUS
May 2021	Fundable Grant/ Research proposal writing training	Development of funded proposals expected to have great impact and solutions to societal problems
June 2021	Plumbing	Modern plumbing systems and equipment. Quotation development and interpretation of plumbing service drawings.
	Solar Water Heating for homes and industry	Design (in terms of power requirement) in line with existing roofs, Installation and maintenance
July 2021	Audit and repair of existing structures	Examination of existing structure's integrity, evaluation and report writing on findings.
August 2021	Energy auditing and energy saving techniques workshop	Criteria for energy auditing, importance of energy audit, use of natural renewable sources of energy as a cheap alternative.
	Upcoming construction methods and materials	Conventional/ modern methods and materials for construction
September 2021	Public Private Partnership model	Modern partnership models, characteristics of various partnership models, techniques of development.
October 2021	Feasibility studies training	Project development process, cost benefit analysis, elements of feasibility study, case studies of manufacturing industry's feasibility studies.

NOTE:

1. Training may not follow the dates given on the schedule. The office will send out official communication once all is set and Members are encouraged to be checking the website for upcoming events.
2. Training fees to be communicated together with confirmed training.
3. Duration for the training is subject to areas of training.
4. The trainees must attend all scheduled hours to attain the maximum points..